COACHES' CORNER

On Tuesday, December 17, Whiteley Gym was the scene of more than three hours of excellent basketball competition. And it was a very good thing that the play was so competitive for that generated the only heat there was in the building. When the dust had settled the winners of the three-man team tournament were John Hennon, Ronald Moersch and Glen Kennedy. In second place in the double elimination play were Gary Eller, Andy Dearman and Rick Campbell.

Turn in your rosters for intramural basketball as soon as second semester starts.

- A pre-Lent assembly, to set the stage for our Lenten observances.
- Ash Wednesday services (12 February) with an evening communion service.
- Each Sunday night, a communion service with faculty participation, beginning at 10:15 P.M. to make student attendance possible after return from field education responsibilities.
- Weekly themes with Bible study and lectionary suggestions.
- Small faith-sharing groups which will meet once each for five weeks with a faculty and a student facilitator, dealing with either theological, biblical, interpretive or service themes, including prayer and group worship.
- Maundy Thursday services.
- Good Friday, including the presentation of the play "Counterpoint" by Olaf Hartmann.
- Holy Saturday, the PASCHAL VIGIL.

All who are interested in assisting in the planning and leadership of our Lenten-Vigil worship are encouraged to attend this meeting. Persons unfamiliar with the Paschal Vigil should purchase the January 1974 issue of Liturgy in the TBA and read of this celebration at Princeton Seminary.

NOTES

1. TAKE IT OFF! The Ladies' Gym/Slimnastics Fellowship will meet each Monday night from 8 to 10 o'clock in Whitely Gymnasium. It is open to students, students' wives and employees. In a joining of Seminary women we hope to have a fellowship with each other, growing in grace (and losing in weight). Please wear clothing loose enough to permit freedom of motion--jeans or lectards are fine.

2. Robert Yohn and Carol Conway of the Green House Dance Ensemble (a New York cooperative company) will conduct the workshop. They will also assist with the evening service. The workshop will be in three parts: Technique (1 P.M.), Choreography (2:30) and the Use of Dance in Worship (4:00). These are interrelated and sequential, and attendance at all three is suggested. Participatory--wear comfortable exercise clothing. It is emphasized that the dancing during the evening service--"The Man They See" and Donne's "Devotions"--is a religious celebration, not a performance. The program was planned by Ms. Nancy E. W. Saunders, M.Div. Middler.

3. If there are any specific questions, please leave them in Sandra Brown's campus mail box. All interested members of the Seminary Community are invited to attend. [See also Notices.]

4. Juniors: DO NOT FORGET TO TURN YOUR REGISTRATION FORMS IN AT 116 HODGE HALL.

5. Clergy and laity will be encouraged to work on creative expression, drawing from the richness of literature, with special attention to the works of Melville, Kafka, Beckett and Rilke, and to a scenario on "Huckleberry Finn." Scottish poet Bruce, an elder of the session of St. Giles Church, Edinburgh, was from 1966 to 1971 in charge of the BBC Scottish Division Art Programs, both radio and television. He has published four books of poetry and is represented in numerous anthologies.

6. Supervisors and students in the Princeton Urban Program in Newark will be on campus all day to share their experiences and solicit interest for next year. Students and faculty are invited to have lunch in the main dining room at 12:30 P.M. to meet the Newark people. The Forum will comprise brief presentations by people involved in the Program. For more information, stop in at the Field Education Office--or see Archie Jenkins, Jim McGrath, Valerie DeMarinis, Bob Searle, Dick Mahoney, Rick Signore, Steve Brandt, Bruce Comiskey, Paul Swedlund and/or Vernon McGowen.

7. The Princeton Prayer and Praise Fellowship meets every Friday evening, same time & place.

THOSE LOST AMENS: Some have noticed that we are not playing AMEN after hymns at Chapel services. Some have not--and have opened their mouths in unfulfilled anticipation. Here's the reason: Singing AMEN after hymns is a 19th Century custom introduced by the Anglicans in England. The effect of the Oxford Movement revival of hymnody from about 1840 onward was that editors added doxologies to every hymn in "Hymns Ancient and Modern"; since there was a tradition of AMEN after doxologies, every hymn got its AMEN. But this was because "When I Survey" (for example) and everything else had a spurious doxology added on. Free Churchmen followed the example because, though they claimed to hate the Church of England, they really thought Anglican customs were socially acceptable. In England the Anglicans dropped the custom two generations ago; and Free Churchmen (same principle), one generation ago. So there's no Reformed precedent at all for singing AMEN after hymns, and only a corrupt Episcopal precedent. Anyhow, they're unmusical and almost always sung badly. So for four months we'll omit them. After that, do what you like. E. Routley.

FROM ASHES TO EASTER: ANNOUNCING: A major Seminary event for faculty, students and spouses--"From Ashes to Easter." COACHES' CORNER

The time is slowly drawing near! On Tuesday evening, 18 February, Whitely Gymnasium will come to life as the 1975 Basketball Intramural Season begins. Will your team be ready to achieve what last year's champs, The Humpz, accomplished? Before the season begins, however, there is much to be done. If you plan to enter a team, you must turn in a roster to Malcolm Laing no later than Tuesday, 11 February. The league is limited to eight teams, so get your rosters in! For further information concerning the season consult the information sheets on the bulletin boards in each dorm, the Campus Center and Stuart Hall. The sooner rosters are turned in, the sooner the schedule can be completed. To date one team has turned in an entry: Westminster Choir College. The WCC team is going all-out this season, with STAGE BAND MUSIC and CHEERLEADERS, to be prepared for some fierce competition from them.

Due to some security problems on the Seminary campus and at Whitely Gymnasium some changes have been initiated regarding the use of Whitely. Each keyholder has been

Members of the Chapel Choir who have time will be welcome, but this is especially drawn to the attention of SEMINARY AND FACULTY WIVES, who might care to join in. If you cannot come at that time and are interested, contact Dr. Routley direct (921-7806).

3. "Jesus Christ Frees and Unites" will be the theme when 19 leading Russian churchmen meet their American counterparts in a week-long (18-24 February) conference at Princeton Seminary. The sessions are in preparation for the next World Council of Churches Assembly, in Nairobi, next December. AT THE ALL-SEMINARY CONVOCATION: All members of the Seminary Community are invited to share in informal discussions with the representatives following the presentations.

Faculty members and students are also invited to review papers submitted by both the Soviet and the U.S. delegations and are encouraged to contact Dr. Charles C. West.

Should Community members wish to meet members of the delegation informally--at dinners, gatherings or seminars--please contact Dr. West.

4. All members of the Seminary family are invited to an informal reception in the Center of Continuing Education to meet participants in this year's Jewish-Christian Dialogue. Leaders are Dr. Kieval, Professor Koenig and Rabbi Bernards.

ART EXHIBITION: Students who have completed art projects in PR70 Ministry of Worship, or projects similar to those, are invited to lend them to a public exhibition to be mounted in the Speer Library foyer in early March. Each will be displayed with a lettered card, and guides will be available at stated hours to discuss the total exhibition and the individual pieces.

The show will also be on display during the Paschal Vigil, at a place to be announced when plans are completed.

Please bring your stole, poem, sculpture, banner, painting, music or other work to the Public Relations Office, 10 Administration Building (west end of basement) during office hours. The planned advance publicity will be more effective if we have time to illustrate it with photographs--and more accurate if you give us a description of your work and the philosophy which evoked it.

Your work will be returned to you when the two exhibitions are concluded.

STUDENT COUNCIL NOTES: Members of the Student Council met Monday, 10 February, at 6:30 P.M. Discussion centered around the need for a student-wide evaluation of funding policies. Plans are being made to obtain reports and evaluations from student members of the committees in the Seminary Community. More will be said in the next Wineskin, after the Council's plans have been worked out. Mary Robards.

ENTERTAINMENT ON CAMPUS: Decidedly not a recital [a public exhibition of skill], an informal evening with Chris Dillon is an opportunity to sit back, tap the ole foot, grin and variously get it on. Chris is a singer-sonwriter; and, although he is no musician, he carries around a guitar on which to get his fingers twisted and work out his frustrations. Anyway---he warmly invites you to come to the Campus Center Auditorium (bring refreshments and friends, if you'll be responsible for spills, crumbs, empties and pear cores) on Friday, 28 February, at 8:30 P.M.--but only if you don't mind a little boogie tossed into an otherwise orderly affair.

THE JUNIOR RETREAT--A PREVIEW:

When we came to Princeton Seminary last fall, many of us had a picture of what seminary life would be like (a piece of heaven on earth?), a vocational goal somewhere out there in the three-year horizon, and a conviction that the academic process here would help us more toward that horizon. After one semester a number of questions have been raised concerning all these areas and in many ways "It's not what I expected at all!" Dr. Alston of the Nassau Presbyterian Church, who will be joining us on Saturday morning (15 February) put it this way in his communion message in Miller Chapel on 30 January: "Everything you thought you had nailed down in the beginning is all starting to come up now."

For many of us our goals in life, our expectations, our relationships and methods of achievement have changed. Consequently, we may be somewhat different people now than we were in September. We hope that this retreat will provide a time for each of us to examine the influences which have reshaped our thinking and to explore the questions concerning "who we are," "where we are" and "where we are going."

The retreat is planned for 14 and 15 February 1975 at the Nassau Presbyterian Church (Palmer Square facility). Our time together begins with dinner at 6:30 P.M. on Friday and concludes at 3:30 P.M. on Saturday. All JUNIOR CLASS STUDENTS, FACULTY, TEACHING FELLOWS and the SPOUSES OF ALL are invited. The registration fee is $1.00 per person (no charge for meals) and may be paid at the Office of Student Relations, 116 Hodge Hall.

UPUSA NEWS: PRESS RELEASES FROM THIS AGENCY ARE POSTED AS RECEIVED ON THE PUBLIC RELATIONS OFFICE BULLETIN BOARD.

A MORATORIUM ON FUNDING NEW SELF-DEVELOPMENT PROJECTS was LIFTED (on 25 January) in Los Angeles by the National Committee on the Self-Development of People, UPUSA. Past commitments have now been met in full, and new proposals will be accepted between 1 February and 15 April, 1975. The Reverend AARON E. GAST (53B) was elected chairperson of the National Committee. Mr. Gast, Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Germantown, Philadelphia, has been a member of the Committee since its 1970 inception.

Steps to encourage INTENSIVE STUDY of a plan for REUNITING the nation's TWO LARGEST PRESBYTERIAN DENOMINATIONS were approved in Atlanta, Georgia, on 7 February. The Presbyterian Church U.S. and UPUSA have since 1969 engaged in union conversations. An 8-WOMAN TASK FORCE, authorized by the two denominations' governing bodies last year, met with the joint committee for the first time at the Atlanta meeting.

A UNITED PRESBYTERIAN SHAREHOLDER RESOLUTION filed with INTERNATIONAL TEL & TEL is being WITHDRAWN following the corporation's agreement to seek a REVIEW OF ITS WORK IN SOUTH AFRICA, as the resolution had requested. Items of concern: ITT's compliance with the U.S. arms embargo on South Africa, dependence on contracts with an overly racist government which practices a policy of apartheid, and the encouragement of white immigrants to work for ITT in South Africa (reducing the need for upgrading black workers). At the same time STANDARD OIL COMPANY OF CALIFORNIA announced that it WILL WITHDRAW FROM OPERATIONS IN NAMIBIA (Phillips, Getty & Continental had already announced decisions to terminate operations there).

JUNIOR CLASS RETREAT REPORT

An evaluation of where we are and where we are going as Princeton Theological Seminary students was the primary focus at the Junior Class Retreat held Friday and Saturday, February 14 and 15. The activities centered around dialogue among the Juniors themselvs with additional input by spouses, some faculty and Seminary staff. Discussion was stimulated on Saturday by two presentations by the Reverend Wallace Alston, pastor of the Nassau Presbyterian Church. Three Princeton graduates who are now teaching or working for the Seminary also shared with the group ways their lives have been influenced by their years in Seminary.

About 75 persons were present at the retreat on Friday evening which was highlighted by a concert of blue grass music from Frog Hollow.

Suggestions were discussed as to how the Seminary might better serve as an exemplary community of Christian believers. No group action was taken on this issue although specific recommendations were made which could be acted upon by interested persons at another time.

Juniors on the planning committee would like to thank participating faculty for their interest and concern. Also, many thanks go to the Masters-in-Residence and upper classmen who helped to plan and carry out the event.

Mary Hoover.

PRINCETON SEMINARY NOTES

At its March meeting the Seminary Conference adopted a report and recommendations presented by a subcommittee requested to consider admission procedures, life at the Seminary and placement in ministry as these areas relate to women students and students from minority groups. The recommendations (summarized), to be transmitted to the Board of Trustees, were:

(1) that a moratorium be called on the hiring of white males to the Seminary faculty unless the responsible committee can demonstrate that no woman or minority person has the requisite credentials or is available;

(2) that the same moratorium be followed with respect to the hiring of new administrative personnel;

(3) that some investigation be taken to add a woman to one of these offices: field education, professional studies, placement;

(4) that vocational counseling for all students become a vital part of the Seminary experience.

There were less extensive discussions of mid-semester course evaluations, priority setting and the Junior Class Retreat. C. Willard.

UPUSA RELEASES:

Full releases on public relations bulletin board, Administration Building basement (west door).

OPPOSITION TO CONTINUING U.S. INVOLVEMENT IN INDOCHINA was voiced by the U.P. Advisory Council on Church and Society. The Program Agency was requested to disseminate information to synods & presbyteries on proposed supplemental appropriations for South Vietnam and Cambodia. Statements of opposition to such appropriations would be encouraged on the basis of previous positions adopted by the denomination.

The U.S. Dept. of Housing and Urban Development has underwritten $13 million for the creation of Harbison, S.C., a new town built under the auspices of the U.P. Synod of the South. Conceived in 1967, Harbison is already in initial construction stages; will accommodate 25,000-26,000 persons; will include 7,362 living units.

Establishment of a form of ministry under the OFFICIAL category of "interim pastor"--to serve churches without regular pastors--will be proposed by the U.P. Vocation Agency to the 187th General Assembly in May.

A JOINT OFFICE OF WORSHIP (UPUSA and PCUS) in sight, as both denominations join in search for staff and office space; new director to be found by 1 September 1975. Position requires specialized experience in theology of worship and its practical expression in liturgy, music, the graphic and literary arts, the dance, architecture and "all other means by which Christians may offer acceptable worship to God." Encouragement of liturical renewal in both the supporting denominations and the ecumenical arena to be a major responsibility.

Program Agency Board (UPUSA) voted support to keep church-related Boggs Academy (Keysville, Georgia) alive--only predominantly black secondary boarding school accredited in the U.S.A.

4. PHILADELPHIA URBAN INTERNSHIP with NEIGHBORHOOD RESOURCES WEST INTERVIEWS ON 2 APRIL: Neighborhood Resources West, a new approach to urban ministry, is being carried out in West Philadelphia as part of the emerging mission and ministry of Calvary United Methodist Church, 48th and Baltimore. A non-profit, multi-component neighborhood corporation, it is designed to attract professionals--doctors, electricians, lawyers, plumbers, dentists--back to a depleted, multi-racial inner-city neighborhood near the University of Pennsylvania. The congregation provides a core of people for a block network of residents who can at once recommend the corporation's professionals to their neighbors and apprise the corporation of those neighbors' needs. The project, which will qualify as an internship placement for PTS students, can take up to 10 students, some from other seminaries. Further information: Field Education Office. The Reverend Donald Steinle, director, will preach in chapel on Wednesday, 2 April, and will meet with interested students at lunch.

COACHES' CORNER

Tuesday, 10 March, witnessed[1] the crowning of a new PTS Basketball Champion. Dearman's Devils, led by Coach Any Dearman's 20 points, convincingly defeated the P-W Warriors, 64 - 48, to win the cup. P-W gave a good account of itself for 3/4 of the game, but could not match the Devils' hot shooting. The Devils, as one might expect, were hot all year and devastated all of their opponents. One Devil[2] was so caught up by the intensity of this game as to spew forth a rather unheavenly remark and was promptly tagged with a T.[3] In the night's other action, the Frenz defeated the Elect, 54-38; and WCC drubbed North to the tune of 51-36. Thus the season's final standings are: Devils, 5-0; P-W, 4-1; WCC, 3-2; Frenz, 2-3; Elect, 1-4; and North, 0-5. Congratulations, Devils!

Tuesday night, 8 April, at 7:30 P.M., a team of Allstars will test the Devils in the season finale. The Allstars include Randy Golladay, Don Luidens and Robert Lee from WCC; Jeff Webster, Phil Anderson and Lerrill White from North; Bob Searle, Mike Pearson and Lewis Leon from Frenz; Drayl Anderson, Paul Kress and Jim Miller, representing the Elect; Ron Moersch, John Hennon and Roger Lehman, from P-W.

BASEBALL SEASON IS UPON US!!Teams wishing to participate PLEASE turn in your rosters to us by 11 April. This is a must, if there is to be Intramural Softball.

Our special thanks to ROGER HOWARD for an outstanding job of basketball refereeing.

1. In connection with Puritan Ethics and American Culture & Religion and the American Revolution, but open to the public. Colonial Williamsburg production, documenting the experience of English naturalist Mark Catesby and the background for his important work on New World natural history. From 1712 to 1719 Catesby sketched and collected flora and fauna of the Tidewater Virginia countryside.

2. Part of Center of Continuing Education Seminar on Black Theater. Room for a limited number of Seminary students and Visiting Fellows to attend entire Seminar as guests of the Center. Please contact Dr. Jack Cooper at the Center office by 11 A.M. on Monday, 14 April. The Hazel Bryant Dance recital is open to Seminary students.

3. Please try to eat quickly and be there on time!

4. Part of Seminar on Black Theater, Center of Continuing Education. Seminary and friends welcome to this special performance. Of this dramatic group Edwin Newman (NBC-TV) said that it "has more talent on the stage than the law should allow."

5. Five Bach choral preludes, meditations and congregational song will be the chief elements in "Five Fingers of Prayer." Open to the public. Dr. Bristol chose the preludes, varied in style, as representing the spirit of the five chief forms of prayer: confession, petition, adoration, intercession, thanksgiving; each is taken from a different period of Bach's life. After he has played each prelude, Dr. Routley will give a brief meditation on one of the prayer forms and invite the congregation to participate in singing the Lutheran chorale on which Bach based that work.

6. Mr. Forbes, Coordinator of Interpretation and Stewardship for Children and Youth, UPUSA, will be available to discuss some of the resources produced by the General Assembly offices for use in local parishes. Free samples of many materials available. Opportunity to ask questions about various agencies of the General Assembly and ways in which they can help you. Especially helpful for UPUSA seniors, but all are welcome.

7. The entire Seminary Community is invited to join in a day of fasting, worship and reflection upon the problems of the inequality of food distribution and world hunger. Those participating in the fast are asked to spend their normal meal time in thought and reflection. The scheduled activities are listed in the calendar, page 1. A literature table and telegram-letter table will be available all day in the Campus Center foyer.

Non-boarders may give the money saved during the Day of Fasting at either the Chapel service or the evening program. These funds and the money reimbursed from the dining service for fasting boarders will be given to CROP.

NB: Those who do not fast are asked to eat their evening meal at 5:30 P.M. (because those breaking their fast will come at 6), but are encouraged to remain for the program.

COACHES' CORNER

A few notes of special interest concerning the basketball season just past: Did you know that Steve KENGETTER finally played on a championship team? The "Getter" was successful on his third try and thus has avoided returning for his Th.M. in order to attain the championship status. Congratulations, Steve! For your efforts we present to you the Fran Tarkenton Perseverance Award. --------- It is now a recorded fact that Roger HOWARD assessed more technical fouls than any other referee in PTS history. ----- Andy DEARMAN became the first "bearded" coach to guide his team to the "Cup." Contrary to a rumor started by one of the tenants of Whitely Gym, Andy did not grow this beard to protest the referees' calls.

ANOTHER REMINDER ABOUT INTRAMURAL SOFTBALL ROSTERS: They must be in by 11 April!! To date we have received entries from the Alex team and the "Jas. I's Trucking Co."----- Two teams hardly represent an adequate league.

Perhaps you have noticed the sign-up sheets around campus for an INTRAMURAL TRACK MEET. We have acquired the Peddie School facilities for the meet--but there must be a minimum of 20 entries------Please sign up SOON.

For all you masochists who love to run, and for those who like to taste "the one to have when you're having more than one"------the annual K.I. Run is coming up! Mal-Bruce.

NOTES

1. It is hoped the Community Evaluation Planning Day will involve faculty, students and administrators. To be held Thursday, 8 May, it will include sessions on concerns brought before this PLANNING SESSION. Students are encouraged to attend this student planning session and to present concerns and topics to be discussed in the evaluation of personal and Seminary growth in the PTS setting. Please attend! W. Humphreys.

2. All three lectures are parts of a special 21-24 April seminar at the Center of Continuing Education, "Theological Contributions to Equality." All are open to the public, without charge. The program is designed to help church leaders--professional and lay--to counsel and inspire others to deal with problems of inequality and injustice in the perspective of the church and the Revolutionary period. (Suggestions for local church observance of the nation's Bicentennial should also emerge from the sessions.)'

Three main themes will be treated: the contribution of the churches and theological ideas to the definition of political equality during the Revolutionary War period; how concepts of equality in Christian thought influenced the Abolitionists and the Black Church; and how recent history and changing theological understandings have shaped the churches' perceptions of current problems of equality.

Because the seminar brings together humanists and a segment of the general public, it has attracted support from the N.J. Committee for the Humanities, an affiliate of the National Endowment of the Humanities. Part of this support enables to Seminary to make available scholarship assistance to those who are black, members of other minority groups, women or working people.

3. The purpose of the meetings is to receive reports from Committees formed at the earlier meeting.

The Nominating Committee for Class Officers: Laura Jervis, Val Fowler, John Vasantkumar. Send your suggestions directly to the Committee, or to Philip Stagg.

The "Ad Hoc Committee on Critical Choices": Harry Schill, Scott Burkley, Bill Weaver, Buzz Mattingly, Bill Patterson. This group will deal with other concerns of the graduating Seniors; give them your suggestions regarding topics listed in the docket mailed to each Senior.

NB: ELECTION OF SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS WILL TAKE PLACE MONDAY, 28 APRIL. A.M. Byers,Jr.

4. What is the Christian response to the sexual revolution? What is the Christian response to the current trend of sex and pleasure? How do you achieve a balance between sexual pleasure and giving oneself to your partner in Christian love? How do you teach young children sex? These are just samples of the questions which will be discussed by Mr. Kirby. Wives are asked to submit questions and topics for discussion to Lynn Seydel (452-1494). Do plan to attend.

5. The Reverend Byron Chambers is a Methodist minister. A native of Jamaica, he was educated at the United Theological College of the University of the West Indies and at London University. He is a Th.M. candidate at Princeton Seminary. L. G. Anderson.

ANNOUNCEMENT: RALPH NADER will speak on "The Nuclear Power Gamble" in Alexander Hall, Princeton UNIVERSITY, on Wednesday, 23 April, at 8 P.M. Open to the public. (Free.)

COACHES' CORNER

When we commenced our duties as Athletic Chairmen, we were presented with a number of keys. Assurances were made to the effect that such keys would grant us entrance into any and all places. And so we began the year rejoicing: We had the "keys to the kingdom." Alas! Last Tuesday evening saw a reformation and revelation. The door to our "private office," that inner sanctum for retired and tired "jocks," could not be opened. The keys to the kingdom had failed! Patiently, every trick was tried: Protestations (both saintly and otherwise) were made; hinges were hammered in a heavenly manner; the old "If it doesn't open, kick it" trick was tactfully tried--I even knocked, to see whether it would be open to me--NOTHING! Dejectedly, I nailed my thesis to the oaken door: "Janitor, do not double-lock this door again!"

Because of the above the scheduled Allstar vs. Devils game was canceled. Locked in the room with the un-open door were all the necessary athletic articles availing all of the aspiring the abundant ability to actively affect the anticipated action.

THE SOFTBALL SEASON gets under way Wednesday afternoon, 16 April, with the Terrific Triune Trio: North Hall, Diamond-in-the-Rough and Jas. I's Trucking Co.

1298 points were scored during the past basketball season. Of those, Bob Searle had 99; Rick Campbell, 89; Ron Moersch, 84; and Roger Lehman, 82. A hearty round of applause and Rev. Jack Daniels Higher Inspiration Awards for their contributions!

THE THIRD ANNUAL K.I. RUN WILL BE HELD THE AFTERNOON OF 8 MAY!! Mal-Bruce.

Produced by Colonial Williamsburg, the film deals with one of the earliest important American art forms. It should be of particular interest to enthusiasts in early American crafts and 18th Century colonial life.

3. Elizabeth Houston, harp; Mary Ann Williams; Karlfried Froehlich, Blockflöte; Choir; Ronald Haizlip, organ accompaniments. Anthems by Ted Lorah, Marshall Brown, Robert Elmore. This represents the premier performance of the new Robert Elmore anthem, "Thou Hast Kindly Led Us," with text taken from the 1789 Book of Common Prayer, William Penn's Prayer for Philadelphia, Psalm 34, and the writings of Count von Zinzendorf (1700-60).

Mr. Elmore's anthem was commissioned by Princeton Theological Seminary, the Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church and the Brick Presbyterian Church of New York City in conjunction with their Anthem Contest for the American Bicentennial. A native of Ramaputnam, India, where his parents were missionaries, Elmore began his musical education at the age of six in Lincoln, Nebrasca; three years later he began his study of the organ. During his undergraduate days at the University of Pennsylvania, he received the Nitsche First Prize three years in a row and in 1936 was the first recipient of the Thornton Oakley Medal for Achievement in Creative Art. The Royal Academy of Music in London granted him a Licentiate in organ, concert piano and pianoforte accompaniment, an achievement unprecedented in the history of the institution. In the same year he earned the degree of Associate of the Royal College of Music in London. His many concerts in this country and abroad include a Carnegie Hall debut hailed by critics and public alike. He has appeared with such orchestras as the Detroit Symphony and the Philadelphia Orchestra; and in January was organ soloist in a recital at Longwood Gardens. His "It Began at Breakfast" was the first American opera to be televised; he is at least equally known for his symphonic and choral works. He has received two honorary doctorates for "outstanding congributions to church music in the U.S." After service as organist and director of music at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, Philadelphia, and Central Moravian Church, Bethelehem (Pennsylvania) Mr. Elmore became organist-music director of the Philadelphia Tenth Presbyterian Church, where he directs and multi-phase program of choral and instrumental music, including a special musical series each season, featuring a number of his new works composed for the series.

The concert is under the direction of Dr. Erik Routley, Princeton Seminary's Visiting Professor of Hymnology and Church Music, a minister of the United Reformed Church of England and Wales. A popular teacher-lecturer on subjects of church music and theology, Routley is the author of seven books, including "Words, Music and the Church," "The English Carol" and "The Musical Wesleys."

COACHES'

The crack of the hardwood meeting the horsehide, complaints of "We wuz robbed!" flashing spikes--these all add up to spring and another PTS Intramural Softball season--right? Well, no, not exactly. To begin with, we cannot afford a horsehide softball, and our bat is made of aluminum. (Presbyterians always have gone for those new-fangled things.) So what was heard last Wednesday afternoon was the "tink" of a three-year-old softball as it dribbled off the bat. Nevertheless, it was baseball, in spite of gale winds and sub-freezing temperature. The afternoon's first game saw Jas. I's Trucking Co. win without setting foot on field. The Truckers took a 1-0 forfeit from North Hall. In the second contest "The Whiskey's" (surely a reference to the home plate umpire's whiskbroom?) stomped the "Diamond-in-the-Rough," 13-2. Let's see, that's two wins for the singles and none for the marrieds. Could that be a prophetic writing on the basepaths? This week's Rev. Jack Daniels' Higher Inspiration Award goes to Bob Kopp for his tremendous catch of a line shot destined to become a home run. We should like also to present the First Annual Herb Anderson Foot Award to Jay Hollingsworth for the way he digs in at the plate. If you want to be a witness to some of the action, present your bod at the Princeton-Windsor Field any Wednesday afternoon.

ATTENTION ALL STUDENTS: We have been challenged to a softball game by our illustrious Faculty Team. This aggregation is led by captain Cullen I K Story and famous designated hitter/coach Diogenes Allen. Negotiations for the confrontation are under way--stay tuned for details. It is this writer's opinion that if the game takes place the profs will get their Princeton Pride punctured prodigiously.

THE K.I. RUN will be Thursday, 8 May. Sign-up sheets will be posted. If you want to register early, call us. Mal-Bruce.

COACHES' CORNER

A championship game is brewing between the Whiskeys and Jas.I.'s Trucking Co. Last Wednesday's action saw both teams extend their records to 2 wins and 0 losses. The first game of the day resulted in another forfeit by the team from North Hall, giving the Whiskeys a close one, 1-0. It has been rumored that North is on the lookout for a designated team. The afternoon's second contest came close to being a valid reason for a belief in reincarnation, as Jas. I's Trucking Co., in St. Valentine's Day Massacre style, kicked the carbon out of Diamond-in-the-Rough. Final score, 20-4. Anyone who doubts (can there be any such at the Seminary?) the vicious nature of the game should consult Ed. HARDWICK. The Jas. I shortstop is a living testament to the bloody battle. Ed is certainly a (through rumor just in) martyr. The contest also saw the first triple "killing" in PTS softball history. Due to some inept base running, the Truckers produced the triple play, probably the first in slow-pitch history, by erasing three Diamond runners. In keeping with the nature of the contest up to that point, the Truckers triggered the play with on-target throws.

People who plan to participate in the K.I. Run should make their intentions known by placing their names on the sign-up sheets on various bulletin boards around campus. PLEASE MAKE NOTE OF THE DAT: 8 May. AND THE TIME: 3:00 P.M. Also, please be aware of the fact that SIGN-UP DEADLINE is 4:00 P.M., 7 MAY. There must be at least 10 entries FOR THE RUN TO BE HELD.

No more info available on possible Faculty-Student softball games, as yet. This reporter tried all week to contact "Designated Hitter" Allen to make arrangements. When communications finally were set up, your reporter was informed that Rob Stuart was using Dr. Allen as a front person. Very unethical of you, Mr. Stuart. STAY TUNED FOR DETAILS, IN CASE ANY RECONCILIATION IS REACHED. Mal-Bruce.

The National Council of United Presbyterian Men "in keeping with the observance of the nation's 200th birthday" will hold its 1976 meeting in Pennsylvania. Focus of their 1975 meeting was "Called to Come of Age." PTS PRESIDENT JAMES I. McCORD, discussing "Maturing in Prayer Life," described prayer as "primarily a relationship with God, so that God's energy and spirit can flow through us and remake us." Prayer, he said, should be undertaken at specific times: "It is the most important thing you will do; therefore, schedule it"--and it should deal with specific concerns, both personal and corporate. "Don't be afraid to argue with God," he suggested. "Seek his will, but not supinely or lazily." And, he added, "Our private prayers are corrected and enlarged as they are presented in common worship."

FINAL EXAMINATIONS AND SPRING SEMESTER END: 5:30 P.M.

NOTICES

MUSIC AT BACCALAUREATE: At this service we always provide a choir. Last year we borrowed one. This year we should be able to furnish one of our own, but many regular choir members will not be available on Baccalaureate day. Please, may we have some extra volunteers? We especially need WOMEN'S voices, but any will be welcome. Anyone who can come and join us (but NOT any who are graduating) please contact the Music Director, 921-7806 or campus extension 242. Copies of the music to be used are available in the chapel office for you to practice on your own.

Preparatory Practice: Friday, 30 May, Miller Chapel, 1:30 P.M.
Practice: Sunday, 1 June, Nassau Presbyterian Church, 3 P.M.
Service: Sunday, 1 June, Nassau Presbyterian Church, 4 P.M.

Music: Tallis' "Blest are the pure in heart" and Elmore's "Thou hast kindly led us."

E. R. Routley.

LIBRARY BOOKS: All students are requested to return their library books on or before Friday, 24 May. Faculty books are due 16 June. Seniors who plan to graduate are especially reminded to return all books and to clear unpaid fines, to meet graduation requirements. J. Irvine.

DINING ROOM EQUIPMENT: ANYONE WHO HAS BORROWED trays, glasses, plates, cup, silverware, etc., from the Dining Hall is requested to return them IMMEDIATELY. This problem causes additional costs for replacement which, unless the items are returned, must eventually be reflected in higher food costs. Thus your total cooperation is needed to overcome the "roving equipment syndrome." W. E. Lawder.

RINGS: ORDER YOUR SEMINARY RING! 5 percent off all rings, every Friday until graduation, 10 A.M.-5 P.M., Princeton University Store (campus entrance).

INTERFAITH COUNCIL: The Princeton Interfaith Council Worship Committee will hold a special interfaith service at the Friends Meeting House on Sunday, 18 May, at 7:30 P.M. All are urged to come and help commemorate this important feast for both Christians and Jews. Come early and enjoy the quiet grounds of this historical Meeting House. The service will include readings, brief talks, music and time for prayer and meditation.

SEMINARY CONFERENCE NOTES: Meeting of 7 May 1975:

MOTIONS PASSED:

1. That the Student Government be requested to print and distribute, with a covering letter, the mid-semester evaluative instrument, in cooperation with the Academic Dean, and that the interpretation of the response be left to the individual instructor, including the possibility of a 15-minute discussion of the results in each course.

2. That the first meeting of the 1975=76 Seminary Conference be held on Wednesday, 22 October.

CONCERNS DISCUSSED:

1. Housing policy governing admission to Princeton-Windsor of students who marry during their Seminary careers, as stated on page 40 of the 1974-75 Handbook. The quotas are cited on page 38. Both reflect recommendations of student-faculty-administration ad hoc committee. It was concluded that those already living in the area can more easily secure suitable quarters than can newcomers.

2. Apparent decline in Faculty participation in non-classroom activities. It was suggested that students take direct initiative in: (a) taking Faculty members to lunch (contributed funds are available for this purpose), (b) inviting individual Faculty members to meet with dormitory groups (or single floors), (c) promoting debates of matters of theological interest. COACHES' CORNER

The athletic year at PTS ended with an apocalyptic bang! First, the team of Jas. I's Trucking Co., defeating The Whiskeys (9-8), won the Softball Championship. The Truckers unveiled the pitching prowess of Baffling BRUCE MONTGOMERY, who displayed the best delivery (What else would one expect from Truckers?) seen on the P-W diamond in a long, long time. The season's final standings: Truckers, 3-0; The Whiskeys, 2-1; Diamond-in-the-Rough, 1-2; North Hall, 0-3.

And then, last Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the 3d Annual Kings Inn Run was held. The winning time was some five minutes slower than the one posted last year, but the weather was much warmer. The Run also saw the first entry from the Faculty ranks, in the person of Dr. George E. Sweazey. Not only did Dr. Sweazey enter--he completed the entire 4.4

mile course in the commendable time of 45.45 minutes. The winner was Steve MITCHELL, who finished far ahead of all other competitors with a time of 30.20 minutes. Complete results: Mitchell, 30.20; Bill Hathaway, 32.15; Bill Starr, 32.20; Mason Shambach, 33.80; Fritz Kristbergs, 33.95; Bill Patterson, 34.20; Andy Scott, 34.50; Ed Hardwick, 34.65; Will Hartfelder, 35.25; Ed Salo, 35.90; Roger Howard, 35.97; E.M. Uka, 37.25; Jack Pettyjohn, 38.80; Doug Baker, 39.40; Gary Filson, 42.00; Dr. Sweazey; Dan Seeley, 45.45; Lee Beckhusen, 50.90; and Karen Brostrom, 62.83. Luckily, the two Athletic Chairmen did not run. If they had, people would still be waiting for them to finish.

NOTE: ANYONE INTERESTED IN PLAYING ON THE PTS ENTRY IN THE PRINCETON UNIVERSITY GRADUDATE SUMMER SLOWPITCH LEAGUE, please contact BOB KOPP. The games will be played throughout the summer; they are scheduled in the evening hours, allowing people who work to participate. Mal-Bruce.
